DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pelt et al (US 6,546,599) in view O'Dea et al. (US 6,643,845). Pelt discloses an elongated belt member (10) defined as a clip having at least one embedded magnet (34) and a plurality of fasteners (20) thereon. Further, a pair of gloves is attached to the belt by hook and loop material as shown in figure 2. However, Pelt et al does not show a magnetic apparel being attached to the belt.

O'Dea discloses a magnetic apparel/glove having a magnet as shown in figure 1.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to substitute the hook and loop material of Pelt et al with a magnetic apparel/glove being attached by a magnet as taught by O'Dea as an alternative but equivalent means of fastening as known in the art.

Response to Amendment

3. The reconsideration filed on April 29, 2005 has been considered. In view of such a newly applied prior art references has prompted this office action to be made new-non Final and the arguments are moot.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2 and 4 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to Applicant's disclosure.
